

GLOBAL MEDICAL ALLIANCE, LLC

Elite Medical Sales Professional

Introducing GMA's new Elite status... Once you are qualified as an experienced ISR, you now have the option to sign up with GMA as an Elite Medical Sales Professional. What does this mean to you? As an Elite Member, you will receive first priority on all product opportunities presented to ISR's by GMA. In addition, you will gain national recognition through GMA as an Elite Medical Sales Professional.

As an added incentive, you will have the ability to earn a $50 FREE gas card for each colleague that you refer to us that also signs up as a GMA Elite member. If you refer a manufacturer to us that begins to utilize our services; you will be rewarded with two $50 FREE gas cards – all compliments of GMA. (See details on reverse side).

Each member will receive a GMA membership card with the "Elite Medical Sales Professional" title, describing the membership benefits and details on how to redeem the FREE gas cards throughout the year.

If you are an experienced ISR or principle of a rep group, sign up with GMA as an Elite Medical Sales Professional and receive first priority on all product opportunities offered through GMA.

For each referral that you provide to us as an Elite Member, you will receive FREE gas from the station of your choice. (See GMA's website for a complete listing of over 62,000 eligible gas stations.) Gas cards have no expiration dates; however, redemption must be completed by 2/01/10. Each gas card includes redemption information on your choice of participating stations.

- Receive a $50 gas card

When you refer a fellow colleague that's a qualified ISR or agency to GMA and they purchase an Elite Membership. (Note: Referral must contact GMA personally and present your name as the referral source).

- Receive TWO $50 gas cards

When you refer a potential medical device manufacturer to GMA and that company becomes aligned with a GMA referred ISR candidate. (Note: ISR must be working for client beyond 90 days of their start date).
